that one thing he must be both the fourth and fortieth; and it does not apply to the bridegroom's settlement to work for [illegible] their [illegible] a goddess.

Marriage with Fourth

Eighteen marriages were recorded in genealogies between Fourths and Fourth or members of the Fourth group:

Fourths and Fourth women: 6	Fourths and Fourth men: 7
Fourths and Fifth women: 5	Fourths and Fifth men: 5
Fourths and Tufa women: 7

Marriage of Fourths women to members senior to her due to the seniority of the Fourths, which by these rules would have meant that the [illegible] would have considered an [illegible], such marriages also raises the questions of rank in the Fourths.

Polygyny

Although there is no objection to polygyny, Fourths seldom have the means of supporting more than one wife at a time. Except [illegible] were occupied in exchange after a wife's death or [illegible]. In one genealogy a woman had on her [illegible] successive husbands, none of them her husband's brothers, and her only issue was one daughter.

Re-marriage of Widow

Under the Fourth, the Fourths recognize the re-marriage of widows to the nearest available kin [illegible] of husband's to their fathers, brothers, or other representatives [illegible] to [illegible] consent. Widows normally live with their husband's children, either in their parents, or else live alone.

Divorce

Divorce is rare, and is of one kind only: [illegible]. The husband can [illegible] the return of the [illegible]. But a wife who has been [illegible] can [illegible] for any cause whatsoever.

Birth

[illegible] between husband and wife stops at the fourth or fifth month of pregnancy, and is not renewed till the child is about six months old. Birth takes place in the husband's hut, the husband going to live elsewhere [illegible]. The cord is severed by a midwife, [illegible] with the mother to prepare it [illegible]. She stays in the hut for six or seven days after the birth, and the child's body must be kept covered for several weeks, even the father being allowed to see only its face. The mother must be purified by her husband, who [illegible] a [illegible] cooked by male [illegible] [illegible] to her work of the [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
